The Issuer is subject to general market and economic risks that may have a significant impact on its current and future property developments and their timely completion within budget.</li> <li>3. The real estate market in Malta is very competitive in nature. An increase in supply and/or a reduction in demand in the property segments in which the Issuer operates may cause sales of units to sell at prices which are lower than are being anticipated by the Issuer or that sales of such units are in fact slower than is being anticipated. The occurrence of any of these events will have a significant adverse impact on the Issuer’s business and financial condition.</li> <li>4. The Issuer relies upon third-party service providers for the construction and completion of its property developments. This gives rise to counter-party risks in those instances where such third parties do not perform in line with the Issuer’s expectations and in accordance with their contractual obligations.</li> <li>5. Prospective purchasers may default on their obligations with the Issuer.</li> <li>6. The successful completion of development at Tigné Point and the prospective development of Manoel Island may be impacted by the Issuer’s relationship with GOM, in terms of obligations falling upon both parties in terms of the Emphyteutical Deed.</li> <li>7. The Issuer may be exposed to interest rate risk.</li> <li>8. The Issuer’s growth is in part attributable to the efforts and abilities of the members of its management team and other key personnel. If one or more of the members of this team were unable or unwilling to continue in their present position, the Issuer might not be able to replace them within the short term, which could have a material adverse effect on the Issuer’s business, financial condition and results of operations.</li> <li>9. The Issuer may not be able to obtain the capital it requires for development on commercially reasonable terms.</li> <li>10. The Issuer’s business may be adversely impacted by delays or refusals in obtaining planning permissions. Any future development is subject to any planning policies that might apply from time to time.</li> </ol>
------------	---

	11. Failure by the Issuer to substantially complete the entire development by 31 March 2023 will result in penalties (article 8.1.4 of the Emphyteutical Deed). Should the delay persist for more than three years the GOM shall have the right to rescind the Emphyteutical Deed and article 21 regarding dissolution of the Emphyteutical Deed shall apply. GOM shall also have the right to dissolve the Emphyteutical Deed should the Issuer fail to make three annual payment of groundrent or owes by way of groundrent a sum equal in amount to three yearly payments (article 21.1.1 of the Emphyteutical Deed). 12. The Issuer is susceptible to adverse conditions in the commercial rental market. 13. The Issuer is dependent on tenants fulfilling their obligations. 14. The Issuer is subject to termination of lease agreements. 15. The Issuer may be subject to increases in operating and other expenses. 16. No assurance can be given that the Issuer's current insurance coverage would be sufficient to cover all potential losses.
D.3	An investment in the Bonds involves certain risks including, but not limited to those described below:
	1. There can be no assurance that an active secondary market for the Bonds will develop or, if it develops, that it will continue. Nor can there be any assurance that an investor will be able to re-sell his Bonds at or above the Bond Issue Price or at all. A public trading market depends on a number of factors over which the Issuer has no control.
	2. Investment in the Bonds involves the risk that subsequent changes in market interest rates may adversely affect the value of the Bonds.
	3. The Bonds are based on applicable laws and regulations in effect as at the date of this Prospectus. No assurance can be given as to the impact of any possible judicial decision or change in law or administrative practice after the date of this Prospectus.
	4. The Bond Conditions contain provisions for calling meetings of Bondholders in the event that the Issuer wishes to amend any of the Bond Conditions. These provisions permit defined majorities to bind all Bondholders.
	5. Moreover, an investor in the Bonds will bear certain risks relating to the Security Interest according to the ranking of the relative Security Interest. (i) There are in place security interests protecting third party interests; in respect of the special hypothec (forming part of the Initial Security Interest) enjoyed by the Bonds, third party interests have been registered which will rank in priority to Bondholders against the assets of the Issuer for so long as such security interests remain in effect, as further described in Element C.8 above. For instance, since the GOM's privilege for payment of ground rent on the Emphyteutical Land ranks before the hypothecs granted as Initial Security Interest, in the event that there are insufficient funds to pay secured creditors, the GOM will be paid ahead of the Bondholders to the extent of any outstanding ground rent payable. (ii) By acquiring the Bonds the Bondholder is considered to be bound by the terms of the Trust Instrument as if he had been a party to it. The Trust Instrument contains a number of provisions, which the investors ought to be aware of prior to acquiring the Bonds and, therefore, investors ought to be familiar with the provisions of the Trust Instrument.

Any residual amounts required by the Issuer for the purposes of the uses specified in (i) and (ii) above which shall not have been raised through the Bond Issue shall be financed from the Group's general cash flow and/or bank financing.
